Accompanying her powerful voice and wide vocal range with guitar, Frankie Raye is a singer/songwriter based out of Tampa, FL. Her music is a collection of thoughtful and witty songs delivered through catchy and up-beat melodies, with hints of 1950's pop, older Broadway, and 1990's acoustic-coffee-shop music. Her songs are infused with tongue-in-cheek lyrics that are reminiscent of the artists that inspired her when she was young – she has been compared to Alanis Morissette, Jewel, Joni Mitchell, and Melanie. She has been featured on ABC and CBS affiliate news programs, as well various radio shows that regularly play her music. To date, she has performed at over 60 venues throughout the Sunshine State, including the Hard Rock Casino and Steinbrenner Field. Adopting followers at every show she plays, her music has gained attention from listeners all across the U.S - she has even made online CD sales in Europe. Frankie's new CD, "A Thing or Two About a Dream", is available for purchase through several online retailers, including CD Baby, iTunes, Google Play, and Amazon Mp3. Her music has also gained attention from several streaming sites, such as Spotify and iHeartradio.
